

Please do not allow LPFM stations to take priority over translator services. I listen to K-Love on a translator here in Amarillo. This is a listener funded translator; obviously, Amarillo wants to be able to hear it. If K-Love is forced from the air, the most positive programming on the air will be gone. How could that be anything but bad?